11. Community engagement committee-No report.
12. Scholarship committee-So far have not received any scholarships, but anticipate receiving some of them. Ruot stated that he had personally delivered some applications.
13. ICC update-ICC conference will be in St. Louis this year in September. CEOSI and Stehman have been in contact with Schmitz, and will be getting in touch with MABOI to see if there is anything we can do to help. Discussed the fact that last time it was in KC, CEOSI sent a check to ICCA, and then ICCA sent to ICC. We were not happy with the representation. Stehman stated that we will be in contact shortly. If we need volunteers, we will get info out to the group.
14. ICCA update-Truran gave a brief rundown of what the ICCA does. Discussed some of the ongoing legislation items transpiring in the House. Emails have been sent out and more info is to come regarding the potential statewide building code and if anyone has any questions, please reach out to the board. Stehman asked about past practice of paying for CEOSI member, who is part of the ICCA board, attending the March ICCA meeting up north. Josh Ruot made a motion Scott Meinhardt 2nd, all in favor, to pay for expenses for the trip.
